

NEWSLETTER no. 2

33rd Polish Film Festival in Gdynia

The Chairmen of the Juries

The Chairmen of both Juries at this year's Festival have been appointed. Robert Gliński will be the Chairman of the Jury in the Main Competition and Sławomir Fabicki will be in duty in the Independent Cinema Competition and the competition of Shorts and Feature Diploma Films of film schools students.

Festival entries

You can enter films for the 33rd Polish Film Festival until 10 July 2008. The application form must be accompanied by a VHS tape or DVD with the film. Films submitted for the Festival must have been produced in Poland between 1 September 2007 and 31 August 2008. Detailed regulations for films entries are available on our website: www.festiwalgdynia.pl.

How to take part in the Festival?

In order to attend the Festival's events it is necessary to get accredited early enough. Applications will be accepted until 25 August. The entry forms are available on our website: www.festiwalgdynia.pl. The accreditation costs PLN 350.

Pągowski will design the poster

The author of this year's festival poster will be one of the most famous Polish poster designers, a draftsman and an illustrator, Andrzej Pągowski. The artist is the author of over a thousand posters printed in Poland and abroad. He also illustrates books and newspapers, creates record plates covers, scenography in theatres and television productions, screenplays of films and music videos. What shall inspire Andrzej Pągowski for this year's poster? We are looking forward to seeing it.

The Pomeranian Film Foundation in Gdynia - Organizing Office of the 33rd Polish Film Festival

Armii Krajowej 24

81-372 Gdynia

tel.: 058 621 15 09, 058 621 15 39, fax: 058 621 15 83

e-mail: biuro@festiwalgdynia.pl

www.festiwalgdynia.pl