Press Release

Bucharest, May 24th, 2010

Romanian Film Sector, founding member and current coordinator of the international Consortium East European Film Alliance, has the pleasure to announce the list of selected projects for the training program EEFA Training Network 2010.

The selected projects are:

- On the way home (former Alexey and Valentina) -Russia/Germany
- Talk to him – Coming back to senses – Romania
- On the tightrope – Armenia/France
- My little runaway – Lithuania
- City of lovers – Hungary
- Obrana I zastita – Croatia/Bosnia
- Micul Spartan – Romania
- 20 steps underground – Georgia
- Miracolul – Moldova/France
- Angels also die – Ukraine/Azerbaijan/Lithuania
- The meat – Estonia
- I worked for Radio Free Europe – Bulgaria
- Keep the fire – France
- Breathing in, breathing out – Romania/UK

The selected projects will benefit of an entire year of online assistance and a set of four workshops. The first one will take place next month during the Moscow International Film Festival, and will cover script development. Additional workshops are to take place in Golden Apricot (Yerevan, Armenia) for co-productions, Iasi for legal aspects, and Black Nights Film Festival (POFF, Tallinn) for the distribution aspects of the projects. A final presentation of the best projects is scheduled for the next year in Berlin.

It is the second year in which Romanian Film Sector coordinates this European training structure. Last year, 24 film professionals from the Eastern Europe received training during a week-long training in Tbilisi in the former program Traineastfilm.
